Interviews are available with owners of private clinics in Saskatoon. It is a competitive process. Our fees are paid by the clinics we recruit for. You are responsible for your own license, registration fees and travel costs.

The process can be from 3 to 6 months or longer to establish your practice in Canada.

The process is as follows:

1. APPLY NOW by sending your CV to randall.kehrig@gmail.com. Now accepting applications only from candidates who are graduates of general practice vocational training schemes that have been accredited by the Irish College of General Practitioners (ICGP) and who also hold Membership of the Irish College of General Practitioners (MICGP).
2. Selected candidates will be matched to a clinic willing to support them through the process of licensure and immigration.
3. Online interviews will be arranged between candidates and owners of matching clinics.
4. Successful candidates will be offered a contract, assistance navigating licensure requirements and assistance with immigration by the host clinic.
